SEVILLE CENTER

Mrs. Delbert Crum has diptheria. The threshing machine is again at work in this vicinity. Henry White is confined to his bed with sciatic rheumatism. Dan Hoag was called to Ohio recently by the death of his mother. Lewis Pratt has sold his spring coil to Sandier and traded the mare for a three year old colt to the same party. Ira S. Page, of Washington, has given up his job and returned home. He will remain with his parents and help look after the farming and berry business. Letting day for the big ditch has come and gone. J. B. Abbott succeeded in landed one contract of over three miles, and there were numerous other tries not quite so large. John Siles had a thrilling experience the other night while returning from a visit with his best girl. As he was walking along the road he was attacked by muskrat which caught him by the pant leg and a fierce battle was on, and after a desperate encounter John broke loose and took leg bail for security with the muskrat a close second.

S. E. ARCADE

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Odell last week, a son. Mrs. F. T. Gibbs, of Midland, is visiting friends here. Mrs. S. C. Coleman and Mrs. Wm. Parnell, last week, going to Pleasant Valley Sunday en route home. R. S. Swan has brought his daughter, Laura, home from Belding, where she has been ill so long. She endured the trip quite well and hopes are entertained for her complete recovery.

DAVIS SCHOOL DISTRICT.

L. Schneider has moved to Chicago. J. Sanderson has moved out of the restaurant. Breckenridge played ball with Midland Tuesday. Wm. Stevens is having a new roof put on his house. The Cabinet Co. is building a fine coal house for the bank. Dr. Drake is having his office painted. J. F. Thissell is welding the brush. Breckenridge nine won a game from North Star last week and North Star plays here next. Dr. Watson's office is having the finishing touches of paint. The work is done by Mr. Wood. Henry Lippert is painting the Hotel Breckenridge and when completed will look very nice. Mrs. Stevens, mother of Fred and Lewis Stevens, had a stroke of apoplexy, but is improving. P. N. Stitzler has moved to town in Mrs. Ball's house and will follow his old profession of expert painting. A few of our citizens went to Ithaca to the Maccabee celebration and report a good time and would like to go again. Wm. Garey, who had a stroke of paralysis last spring, has not recovered so as to walk about, but uses a wheel chair. The Sunday schools of Bethany, Wneeler and Tubbs district, together with the Baptists and Methodists of this place held their annual picnic at Foxe's grove Wednesday. Chas. Mend, age seventy-seven, died Friday morning of heart disease and old age. Funeral was held at the Baptist church, Rev. Blanchard officiating and interment in Breckenridge cemetery. He had been in poor health for a long time. Dr. C. L. Watson's hired man was using one of the Dr.'s horses cultivating corn Saturday and left it hitched to the cultivator and tied to the fence. In some way it became frightened and broke away and was so badly hurt that it had to be killed. Chas. W. Gray, who has been editing the Clarion for Geo. H. Briggs, who went to Remus, went astray we are told and left town in a hurry by the advice of friends and Mr. and Mrs. Briggs on receiving a telephone message to that effect came last Thursday and got out the paper in a hurry. He has rented the office to a Mr. Steele who is expected to issue the paper regularly hereafter. Mr. Briggs estimates that he is short about $35 or $40 that Mr. Gray collected and of bills that should have been paid but were not about $50.

The Ladies' Aid will meet at the home of Mrs. Ida Mills this week. Mrs. Jane Elliott has gone to Sault to spend a few weeks with relatives.

Mr. Partee, of Alma, was in town Wednesday, looking after the phone business. Mr. and Mrs. E. Sias and daughter, Edna, visited friends in Jasper Saturday and Sunday. We are pleased to hear that there is to be an old fashioned concert at our church the first Sunday evening in September. Those who attended the Maccabee jubilee at Ithaca August 1 report a pleasant time. Your correspondent was especially pleased with the visit as it was the first time we had seen the new court house. A gentleman from St. Louis passed through our town last week and going east came in sight of what he claimed was the finest field of corn he had seen in several hundred miles' drive. This was on the farm of Fred Creech, who says that he has another field that is better yet. On this same farm the beet inspector claims to have found one of the best fields of beets he ever saw.

ELWELL.

Gladis Pettibone and Emma Wilford, of Alma, were the guests of Miss Jessie Thift Friday and Saturday. The letting of the big drain, known as the Sumner and Seville drain, drew a large crowd Monday. ## Was Wasting Away.

The following letter from Robert R. Watts, of Salem, Mo., is instructive. "I have been troubled with kidney disease for the last five years. I lost flesh and never felt well and doctored with leading physicians and tried all remedies suggested without relief. Finally I tried Foley's Kidney Cure and less than two bottles completely cured me and I am sound and well." Sold by Geo. E. Sharrar.

Hump Back

SCOTT'S EMULSION won't make a hump back straight, neither will it make a short leg long, but it feeds soft bone and builds disordered bone and it is among the few genuine means of recovery in rickets and bone consumption. Send for free sample. SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, 499-505 Pearl Street, New York. 30c. and $1.00; all druggists.

Nearly Forfeits His Life

A runaway almost ending fatally, started a horrible ulcer on the leg of J. B. Orner, Franklin Grove, Ill. For four years it defied all doctors and all remedies. But Bucklen's Arnica Salve had no trouble to cure him. Equally good for burns, bruises, skin eruptions and piles. 25c at Geo. E. Sharrar's drug store.

Liver Pills

That's what you need; something to cure your biliousness. You need Ayer's Pills.

Buckingham's Dye

Want your moustache or beard a beautiful brown or rich black? Use Buckingham's Dye. 50c. at Geo. E. Sharrar's drug store.
